WE DRAW THE LINE
WHEN IT COMES TO PERFORMANCE BANDAGE GEAR

www.ProPain.com

“For stuntmen and athletes alike, pain and play are inseparable. Cuts and scrapes are par for the course in professional circles like these, necessitating a more specialized approach to healing and recovery.”

SONNY SUROWIEC
Founder of Pro Pain,
Professional Stuntman & Action Actor

Sonny developed PRO PAIN® - ProTECHtive GEAR to fill his need for a better performing bandage. Sonny found those offered in the market, just couldn't keep up to the demand he and his colleagues placed on them. They either broke down, fell apart, or were just too bulky, infringing on his mobility. Sonny wanted a better bandage experience, one that would fill his needs as a stuntman & athlete, but also serve others looking for more advanced bandage technology.

Sonny also felt there was an golden opportunity in branding his line. One that would resonate with today's media driven consumer, engrossed in high-energy, extreme sports brands like- Redbull, Monster & Nike. He created a catchy brand name, cool edgy packaging and a never-give-up brand identity. PRO PAIN® and its innovative ProTECHtive GEAR is poised to capture a wide consumer demographic base, potentially disrupting the already tiresome bandage category.

IT TAKES YEARS TO BE A PRO... SECONDS TO LOOK LIKE ONE.

TESTIMONIALS

In the field and in boot camp I can use Pro Pain instead of the standard issue bandages, because we are constantly pushing our bodies to the limits.

Alejandra Picazo
USMC Veteran

It stretches, it allows my finger a full range of motion. So when my life's on the line and I'm hanging hundreds of feet above the deck by a finger, I'm confident Pro Pain has me covered.

Tom Gianelli
Free Climber

When I race I need a bandage to keep up with me. That is why I love Pro Pain Bandages. They are lightweight, waterproof, they stick to me and I can't even feel it.
